The Department of Marketing in the College of Business invites applications and nominations for two Assistant Professor of Marketing positions. Both positions are located on the Statesboro campus.

Georgia Southern University is the state’s largest and most comprehensive center of higher education south of Atlanta. With 141 degree programs at the associate’s bachelor’s, master’s, and doctoral levels, Georgia Southern is designated a Carnegie Doctoral/Research university and serves more than 27,000 students on three vibrant campuses—the Armstrong campus in Savannah, the Statesboro campus, and the Liberty campus in Hinesville. Georgia Southern offers an attractive campus environment that encourages learning, discovery, and personal growth. Nationally accredited academic programs prepare diverse scholars for leadership and service as work citizens.

Since 1906, the University’s hallmark has been a culture of engagement that bridges theory with practice, extends the learning environment beyond the classroom, and promotes student growth and life success. Central to the University’s mission is the faculty’s dedication to excellence in teaching and the development of a fertile learning environment exemplified by a free exchange of ideas, high academic expectations, and individual responsibility for academic achievement. Faculty, staff, and students embrace core values expressed through integrity, civility, kindness, collaboration, and a commitment to lifelong learning, wellness, and social responsibility.

Within this setting, in concert with the university mission statement, the College of Business Marketing program emphasizes engagement in many forms and at all stages of the program. Assistant Professors along with other faculty and staff will encourage students to engage with the business community seeking research projects, internships, and mentoring relationships. Students are encouraged to engage with various non-profit and community organizations in terms of service and the acquisition of real-world experiences. Students are encouraged to engage with faculty on research projects designed to further our understanding of the spectrum of activities that constitute the discipline of Marketing as spelled out by the American Marketing Association. In all ways, students are encouraged to become lifelong learners and to take personal responsibility for their own success. Lastly, the Marketing program stresses in all our classes an over-arching concern for making the world a better place by providing long-term profitable and/or economically sustainable organizations, a commitment to nurturing and development of employees, and sustainability both in terms of the long term success of organizations and care for people and the planet.
